Dear Rachel,

My name is Sean King in former Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato's office. My colleague, John Zagame, suggested I contact you. As per above, Park Strategies, LLC, Park Strategies Managing Director Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato, and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

Today's the last day to sign the letter below calling for the sale of F-16s to Taiwan. It was our understanding that Congressman Tonko was prepared to add his signature to that letter. But as of this morning, we're told his name's not yet on it. If he plans to sign it, can you please contact Jeremy Kadden, jeremy.kadden@mail.house.gov, in Congressman Shelley Berkley's at (202) 225-5965?

LAST CHANCE TO SUPPORT THE SALE OF F-16s TO TAIWAN

LETTER CLOSES THIS FRIDAY
OVER 160 CO-SIGNERS ALREADY

Dear Colleague:

We invite you to join us in sending the following letter to President Obama regarding the sale of F-16s to the Republic of China (Taiwan).

As you know, in 2010, the Obama Administration released a $6.4 billion arms package to Taiwan that included Patriot missiles, Black Hawk helicopters, mine hunters and military communications equipment. While we welcomed this very positive step, we were disappointed the package did not include sixty-six F-16 fighter aircraft that Taiwan has sought as well.

Taiwan lives under a constant military threat from the People's Republic of China (PRC), which has an estimated 1,400 short and medium-range ballistic missiles pointed directly at Taiwan. The U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency recently concluded that Taiwan's air defense is showing increasing vulnerability due to the aging of their air force fighter aircraft, in contrast to the PRC's increasing military capabilities.

Taiwan is a fellow democracy facing a very serious threat. At this crucial time in their history and in U.S.-Taiwan relations, we hope you will join us in sending this important letter, to ensure our ally's future security and stability. If you would like to sign, please contact Jeremy Kadden of Rep. Berkley's staff at jeremy.kadden@mail.house.gov.

Sincerely,

SHELLEY BERKLEY

Dear Mr. President:

We are writing to express our concerns about the military imbalance in the Taiwan Strait. In order to maintain peace and stability in the Taiwan Strait, we believe it is critical for the United States to sell the government of Taiwan all the F-16 C/D it requires. We respectfully request that your administration move quickly to announce its support for such a sale and submit the required Congressional Notification for a sale as soon as possible.

Successive reports issued by U.S. and Taiwanese defense authorities outline the threat Taiwan continues to face, including the continued military buildup by the People's Republic of China. For example, Beijing has more than 1,400 missiles aimed at Taiwan and continues to add to this total. China is forging ahead and deploying next generation military technology. Military experts both in Taiwan and in the United States have raised alarms that Taiwan is losing its qualitative advantage in defensive arms that have long served as a primary military deterrent.

Due to impending changes within Taiwan's force structure, we respectfully urge a timely resolution to the aircraft sale issue. Within the next decade Taiwan will retire 70% of its fighter force and without new fighter aircraft and upgrades to its existing fleet of F-16s, Taiwan's situation could become quite precarious.

As you know, the Taiwan Relations Act of 1979 (TRA) states that it is U.S. policy "to consider any effort to determine the future of Taiwan by other than peaceful means...of grave concern to the United States." We remain deeply concerned that delays in the decision on the sale of F-16s to Taiwan and subsequently notifying Congress of their sale could very well result in closure of the F-16 assembly line. In addition to enhancing Taiwan's security, approval of the sale would support thousands of American jobs—especially well-paying jobs in the manufacturing sector.

Thank you for your consideration. We look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Ben, I am working on getting congressional members signed on to the attached House Taiwan Caucus letter, asking President Obama to sell F-16s to Taiwan. I would like to know the name of the person in your office who handles foreign affairs and/or military relations. I would like to discuss with him or her the possibility of Congresswoman Maloney signing on to the letter. I've also attached a list of the 135 Members who have already signed the letter as of Friday, June 24th. Will you please send me the e-mail contact of the person that I should reach out to?

Thanks,

Hi LaShaun –

Unfortunately Congresswoman Maloney will no longer be able to go on the trip to Taiwan at the end of April. The Congresswoman is nervous to leave the country since the current temporary CR bill will be expiring at that time. She wants to make sure she stays here if the government were to shutdown. I want you to know that the Congresswoman sends her deepest regrets and very much appreciates the invitation.

Thank you.

Pursuant to Congressman Fossella's conversations with Congressman McCotter and yourself regarding possible congressional travel to Taiwan, please see attached correspondence between former U.S. Under Secretary of State for Public Diplomacy Karen Hughes and former Taiwan Ambassador David Tawei Lee regarding the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act (MEACA) of 1961. Taiwan's qualified for MEACA since 2006. As such, any Taiwan visit by Congressman McCotter could be paid for through the MEACA program, i.e. using Taiwan funds that are administered by the U.S. State Department.

If Congressman McCotter's interested in visiting Taiwan, please let us know how he feels about having it paid via the MEACA program. If not, we can explore other options. Thanks so much in advance for your assistance.

Dear Nathaniel,

My name is Sean King. I'm writing you at the suggestion of my friend, Melissa Habedank, formerly of retired Senator Dorgan's office. As per the attached photo, and as Melissa can attest, I have a soft spot for North Dakota. I've been there twice, have an oil painting of Bismarck on my Manhattan apartment wall, and even keep this mini-Fighting Sioux Zamboni in my office.

And as per above, Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Taipei Economic and Cultural Representative Office (TECRO) in the United States.

It's my understanding that Taiwan Special Representative to the United States Ambassador Jason Yuan has not yet had a chance to formally meet with Senator Conrad. Might Senator Dorgan be able to meet with Ambassador Yuan at a time of Senator Conrad's choosing? Ambassador Yuan would like to brief Senator Conrad on U.S.-Taiwan relations, and on the state of cross-Strait relations vis-à-vis mainland China.

Please see attached a copy of Ambassador Yuan's bio. By the way, Dakota companies exported $3.9 million in goods and services to Taiwan in 2009. Please let me know if Senator Conrad might have time/interest to meet with Ambassador Yuan, and we'll work toward setting a date. Thanks in advance for Senator Dorgan's kind consideration.

Mainland Chinese fighter crossed Taiwan Strait meridian in June

- Publication Date : 07/25/2011
- Source : United Daily News

A mainland Chinese fighter jet crossed the median line in the Taiwan Strait in late June while attempting to chase off a U.S. Air Force U-2 reconnaissance plane on a monitoring mission in the region, according to foreign sources.

In response, the ROC Air Force quickly dispatched two F-16 fighters to the area, at which point the mainland Su-27 fighter returned to the mainland side of the median line, the sources said.

The ROC military, which closely monitored the whole course of events as they unfolded, determined the incident to be an isolated case. Afterwards, it notified the Presidential Office of the incident.

Fan Chiang Tai-chi, spokesman for the office, said the Ministry of National Defense handled the matter based on established formulas.

MND spokesman Lo Shao-ho pointed out that Taiwan's military has the ability to effectively monitor the activities of mainland military aircraft.

“The military deals immediately with any unusual situation according to standard procedures, to safeguard Taiwan’s air space,” Lo explained.

According to the sources, the incident occurred while the U-2 aircraft was flying from the U.S. Air Force’s Osan Air Base in South Korea to Kadena Air Base in the Japanese prefecture of Okinawa.

The U.S. Air Force reportedly informed the Taiwan side in advance of the monitoring mission, whose route passed through Taiwan’s air defense identification zone. (SB)
